Parker's History.

The latest stuff printed about Par er's antecedents is the tollowing. A great deal of it is more guess works

Outlaw Parker is a marive of Tulare county, California. He has resided in Arizona shout six years, but has been out of the Perritory several times during that time. He is said to have served two terms in San Quentin prison. He is about 38 years old, and is by trade a cowing. Parker's parents were highly respectable people. His mother died when he was a boy. His father went insane after the death of his wife (Parker's mother) and died when Parker was about 15 years of age. Parker has no brother, but has two sisters living His father was Dan Parker, who was well known in Tulace county. Parker was raised by his grandfather, who is now living. la a letter be received from his sister. she said that the grandfather was alm at broken up from getting him out of scrapes, and that the whole family was disgrared.

A few of these cattle went to California for beef, but the bulk went to Kan-States, where they will be fed. In this connection the gratifying statement may be made that without exception the finest lot of cattle shipped from by Olney, Gillespie, Williamson, et, al., gathered from what is known as the Munson Cienega range.-Graham County Bulletin.

Mr. Isane | or er, proprietor of the Burton house, Burton, W. V., and one of the most widely known men in the state, was cured of rheumstians after there years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June. 1894. Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Baim. At this time my fout and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Palo Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured. Got A Check by Flood. From the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribunes, Frankfort Kentucky, specin : A unique freak of the K-ntucky flood came to light here to-day. A sas. Wroming and other feeding lox containing some valuable papers was found floating to the river. Among the papers was a letter addressed to Judge W. S. Pryor of this city from a Bell county man, containing a check Wilcox this year was the branch owned for $100 for legal services. The letter was turned over to Judge Pryot. who placed the check to his credit in the bank. The box had been washed out of the office of the county clerk at Proeville, which was recently inundated by high water, and had floated a distance of over 300 miles.

> J. S. Parmerlee, electrician, who has been in Globe for the past six weeks, left for Pearce, Cochise county. last Saturday. He has been engaged by the Commonwealth Mining Company to construct a telephone line 17 miles in length, from Pearce to C chise station, on the Southern Pac fic, and to install an electric light plant to light the company's new mill and also the stations in the mine. -Silver Belt
